O God who revealed to Saint Justin in the sufferings of the Cross, the great wisdom of Jesus Christ, grant that through the pleadings of Your Martyr and our Patron we may overcome the many errors that surround us and that our faith may grow ever stronger.

In deep humility we pray O Lord for the strength to imitate Saint Justin in his constant efforts to make known the riches of the Faith to his fellow men. Grant us the grace to be ever mindful of the many blessings we have received from You. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it overburden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

Peter’s Pence Collection
Thank you for your generous support in last week’s Peter’s Pence collection! Our contributions combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world, will help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give!

Visit www.usccb.org/national collections and click on the “How to Give” link.

Viatores Christi
Viatores Christi (Travelers for Christ) is a Catholic lay missionary association founded in Dublin, Ireland, in 1960. The mission of Viatores Christi is to recruit and train lay people who wish to serve in areas of need, particularly in developing countries of Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean. The association has placed over 2,000 volunteers in mission assignments in 50 countries.

Therese Osborne, originally from Cleveland, Ohio has worked for many years in El Salvador, beginning in 1979. She was a companion of Jean Donovan and Sister Dorothy Kazel, members of the Cleveland Latin American Mission who were killed in El Salvador on December 2, 1980.

Viatores Osborne, a member of Viatores Christi Lay Missionary Association will speak at Masses at St. Justin’s the weekend of July 13-14, 2019 as part of the Cleveland Diocesan Missionary Co-operative Plan.

EVERYONE WELCOME
Voices of the Saints
“For the name of faith is one in speech, but has two distinct meanings. For there is on kind of faith, dogmatic, involving an assent of the soul to some particular point….But there is a second kind of faith, which is bestowed by Christ as a gift of grace.” (St. Cyril of Jerusalem)

“Faith is a habit of mind, which begins eternal life in us, and induces a reasonable assent to things unseen.” (St. Thomas Aquinas)

“Human reason is weak, and may be deceived, but true faith cannot be deceived.” (Thomas a Kempis)

PSR
Parish School of Religion

2019-2020 registration is now open. Forms are in the church gallery and office.

Children who attend public schools are required to attend PSR classes. The goal of PSR is to form children as disciples of Jesus by developing their understanding of Christian doctrine, encouraging a Christian moral life, inviting them to worship and prayer in Catholic liturgy, and orienting them toward service. St. Justin Martyr Parish School of Religion is at the service of parents, assisting them in the important task of handing on the Catholic Faith to their children.

Becoming Catholic—RCIA
Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

RCIA is the process in which men and women are gradually introduced to the Catholic way of life and become fully initiated. If you or someone you know are interested in joining the Catholic Church at St. Justin Martyr, please speak with Fr. Kevin, a team member or the RCIA coordinator, Charles Hunt at 440-946-3287 & Charles@stjustin.net.

Catholic Humor
A 98 year old Mother Superior from Ireland was dying. The nuns gathered around her bed trying to make her final journey comfortable. They gave her some warm milk to drink but she refused. Then one of the nuns took the glass back to the kitchen. Remembering a bottle of Irish whiskey received as a gift the previous Christmas, she opened and poured a generous amount into the warm milk. Back at Mother Superior's bed, she held the glass to her lips. Mother drank a little, then a little more and before they knew it, she had drunk the whole glass down to the last drop.

"Mother," the nuns asked with earnest, "please give us some wisdom before you die." She raised herself up in bed and with a pious look on her face said, "Don't sell that cow."

Family Perspectives

As we celebrate our freedom, let us give thanks to God for our abundant blessings and remember God’s Kingdom is being established on earth and we are to be part of this. We are sent into the world like the seventy-two were in the Gospel. Jesus wants us to bring the good news to our families, neighborhoods, workplaces—wherever we go! “The work of handing on the faith to children, in the sense of facilitating its growth, helps the whole family in its evangelizing mission. It naturally begins to spread the faith all around them, even outside of the family.”  Pope Francis, The Joy of Love #289

50th Wedding Anniversary Mass

The 50th Wedding Anniversary Celebration Mass that is usually in the summer is scheduled for Saturday, October 12, 2019 at 10 a.m.

Online registration for the Mass will be available shortly.
